EUBCE 2015 Exhibition Testimonials:

The biomass market in China is still developing, this conference gave us access to the newest biomass technologies in Europe. At the exhibition we found several interesting projects from all over the world to collaborate with. This event provides an excellent platform for knowledge exchange at international level.

China University of Petroleum, Beijing

This year's conference has been fantastic for us, many more visitors to our stand than previous years, huge interest in our research outputs and many colleagues expressing interest in future collaborations.

Supergen Bioenergy Hub, UK

We had a lot of serious contacts from all over the world and we are satisfied with the results of our participation as exhibitors.

Polytechnik, Austria
